W. Garrison Esq

My dear Mr Garrison

We have now fixed our Annual Meeting for Tuesday Oct 22nd and shall quite rely on your kind & promised cooperation. Can you tell me as to your intervening movements?

What is the exact date of Anti-Slavery Congress in Paris? I should like to be present.

Do you know a
Mr. Rev. Stephen
of Philadelphia?

He is Lecturing in London on "The Maine
Law, False in Principle, Bad in Policy and Practice;
a Failure in America,
as it ought to be."

I expect he is
some smart Yankee come over to see
the Paris Exhibition and wants John Bull
to pay the expenses.

I have a note from
S. J. Mitchell who travels in a canal
boat for Boston - Rev. Wm
Hazen. His address is Chalpin House,
24 Adelaide Place
South Hampstead
London

You may know him
well.

When do you go to Birmingham, Bradford

You will be very
to hear that Porter
has been quite ill the past few days. He is now recovering - but

As far as all well
at home and
will in much being regard to you and yours.

When you are near Charing Cross
do call at our London Office.

20 King Street
London

Rev^d O'Connor Burns, our Metropolitan Agent, and Mr. John
Hilton our London Electrical Agent are

Thomas H. Parker,
August 6, 1867-

gentlemen and their
most devoted admirers
of you and your great work.

Please give my love to Frank and Mrs. William. He
they are enjoying the old country.

Very, your devoted friend

Thos. W. Parker

P.S. The friends here say you must
let them give you
the Parson
house in Free Trade Hall before you leave. Trust

Thomas W. Parker
